TRACK COVERAGE

Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) are playing increasingly transformative roles in Government, Education and Healthcare. Through e-Government portals and associated initiatives, citizen-centric services are now more accessible. The Education sector has witnessed tremendous changes due to ICT as well, with eLearning, blended learning and distance learning now recognized as alternative delivery modes to the traditional classroom delivery. More recently the importance of ICT in Healthcare has gained renewed attention with the need to develop electronic health records by federal and provincial/state governments. The ICT in Government, Education and Healthcare track invites papers covering a wide array of topics in these areas including but not limited to: Design, Assessment, Review and Management of ICT; ICT Strategic and Policy issues; and emerging roles and potential impact of ICT on Government, Education and Healthcare.

Submission Types and Guidelines

Full Length Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 5000 words, including references, appendices and title page, with a maximum of 5 figures/tables. Submissions must be original, and previously unpublished, conceptual or empirical research manuscripts for review. Highly rated papers by the reviewers will be considered for publications in selected Journals. Moreover, the paper that best represents, in terms of quality and suitability, the theme and ideals of the conference will be awarded the "Best Paper Award" during the conference.

Research-in-Progress Submissions

Submissions of no more than 2000 words with a maximum of 3 figures/tables: All research-in-progress submissions will be published in the proceedings as short papers.

Teaching Cases

We welcome submissions of teaching cases. The cases should be based on real situations and targeted at specific learning objectives. Cases should be no more than 5000 words and must be accompanied by instructor teaching notes (not included in the 5000 words). The teaching notes will not be published.

Panel and Tutorial Submissions

Submissions of not more than 1000 words: Proposals should include the objectives, issues to be covered and full details of all presenters. Method of presentation is at the submitter's discretion; however, the submitter has the responsibility for providing his/her own panel members. All accepted proposals will appear in the conference proceedings (Please note that all panelists and tutorial presenters must register for the conference).

Important Announcements
